LANSING – Sen. Tony Stamas, R-Midland, announced he will hold “Constituent Contact Days” this summer by visiting residents and holding office hours throughout all 10 counties in the 36th Senate District.

The office hours are open to residents wishing to express their opinions or needing assistance with a state issue.

“As an elected official, I feel it is an important duty to keep in contact with the people who elected me,” Stamas said. “This is a perfect opportunity to find out what their thoughts are and how I can help them.”

Stamas will be walking door-to-door in Montmorency County and will be available to meet with local constituents in your area at the following time and location:

City: Atlanta

When: Tuesday, Aug. 16
2:30 to 4 p.m.

Where: Montmorency County Building
